PRESS RELEASE #12

HMHC Project Presents Results at International Online Conference

The conference will provide a platform for discussion on how to improve mental health support for children across Europe and ensure the sustainability of the project results.

The Healthy Mind, Healthy Child project will conclude with an international online conference bringing together educators, policymakers, mental health professionals and community stakeholders.

During the event, project partners will present the methodologies developed, research findings and best practices identified throughout the project.

Participants will also explore opportunities for future cooperation and the wider implementation of the project's outcomes.
